

LOOKS GOOD: Kenji Ohkuma from Japan's Information Technology Promotion Agency deciding whether to have a go at the spicy satay gravy during the cocktail reception.

SPEAKERS AND DELEGATES FETED

KUCHING: A cocktail reception was held at a leading hotel here on Sunday night to welcome speakers and delegates of ASIACRYPT 2007.

Comprising researchers from universities and industry's big players from 30 countries, many of them arrived in Kuching after a long and tiring journey by air.

They were treated to an array of traditional food and drinks, including Sarawak's own tuak (rice wine).