

Eurocrypt 2000

Brugge, May 14 – 18, 2000

The Eurocrypt conferences are a series of annual meetings whose purpose is to promote high-quality research in cryptology. Anyone interested in the latest developments in cryptology and its applications to information security is encouraged to attend Eurocrypt 2000. This conference is organized by the International Association for Cryptologic Research (IACR) in co-operation with the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (K.U.Leuven, Belgium).

Location

The congress will take place in the conference centre "Oud Sint-Jan" in Bruges, Belgium. The congress centre is a completely renovated old hospital and is situated in the centre of the city. The railway station is nearby. Bruges –locally named "Brugge"– is a very popular tourist destination and is often referred to as "the Venice of the North".

Thursday	morning	conference
	noon	lunch

Conference fees

The participation fee is set to US$ 605, with an early registration discount of US$ 75 for registrations before March 31, 2000. The conference fee includes admittance to the conference sessions, a copy of the proceedings, refreshments, lunches (Mon–Thu), the conference dinner, conference social programme and IACR membership.

The accompanying persons programme fee (US$ 375, US$ 300 for early registrations) includes the above without admittance to the conference sessions, without a copy of the proceedings and without IACR membership.

The conference social programme consists of a reception on Sunday, a boat tour on the "Brugse Reien" and the rump session with a degustation of Belgian beer and cheese on Tuesday, and the conference dinner on Wednesday evening.

Student discounts & stipends

Students registering to the conference need to provide verification of their student status with a letter from their Supervisor or Department Chair and a photocopy of their Student ID card.

A limited number of stipends are available to students and to authors of accepted papers unable to obtain sufficient funding. Preference will be given to those who are presenting papers at the conference.

Extra social programme

Besides the conference social programme, an extra (paying) programme is available for anyone interested. Details can be found infra.

Hotel accommodation

Hotel accommodation has been reserved in the hotels listed on the registration form. These reservations expire March 15, 2000. More details about location and comfort, together with cancellation policies for hotels are included in the hotel list. Prices include breakfast, VAT and city tax.

All hotels are within walking distance of the conference centre.

For your convenience, the IACR General Secretariat will centralize the registration forms and forward them to the local accommodation co-ordinator, Momentum (Mrs. Anne De Smet).

Confirmation

You will be sent a separate confirmation for the conference and the hotel booking. Primary method of contact will be email for hotel reservations and fax for conference registration. Please provide a valid fax and email address.

Cancellations

Please note the difference in policy between conference and hotel bookings cancellation.

The hotel cancellation policy is different per hotel. It should be noted that Bruges is a popular tourist destination, therefore hotel cancellation policy is stricter than US policy. This is especially true for *** and **** hotels. For hotel cancellation without conference cancellation, Momentum should be contacted.

Conference cancellation should be done by writing to the IACR General Secretariat. Your hotel booking will be cancelled as well, unless you state otherwise.

Before 15 / 04 / 2000, only a handling fee and the applicable hotel cancellation fee will be charged. Afterwards, the full conference registration + the applicable hotel cancellation fee will be charged.

Method of payment

Visa, EuroCard/MasterCard and American Express credit card payments are accepted. Other credit cards or bank transfers are not accepted. Submit the appropriate credit card details and place your signature. Please make sure the credit card is valid.

If you are not able to pay using one of these cards please contact the IACR General Secretariat.

Important dates

Wed	15 / 03 / 2000	Hotel bookings deadline
Fri	31 / 03 / 2000	Early registration deadline
Sat	15 / 04 / 2000	Conference cancellation deadline
Sun	14 / 05 / 2000	Registration starts (17:00)

Registration

Will start Sunday, 14 / 05 / 2000 at the conference centre Oud Sint-Jan, 17:00.

Travel information

Visa and passport

A valid passport is required. A visa is not required for citizens of most nationalities (in particular: the European Union, Canada and the US). Please contact your local travel agency or embassy if you need further information.

Official letters of invitation will be sent by the Conference Chairman upon request. Please note that the organizing committee will not take any financial obligations for participants' conference related expenses in providing official invitation letters.

Currency

40,3399 BEF (Belgian Frank) = 1 EUR (Euro)

39,5 BEF = approx. 1 US$ (January 2000)

Voltage sockets, plugs

230 V, European norm: three-pole earthed plugs have two pins and a hole in the plug; sockets have two holes and one pin. Adapters are only available in higher category hotels and specialized shops.

Insurance

Travellers are recommended to take out a general travel insurance in their country of origin or permanent residence before travelling abroad.

Weather & Climate

Belgium has a moderate climate. Day temperatures normally are around 15–20°C in May. Occasional showers should be taken into account.

How to get to Brugge (Bruges)

The best way to go from Brussels Airport to Brugge (Bruges) is by train. Take the train to Brussel Zuid (Bruxelles Midi), and change to the train to Oostende or Knokke over there. Get out in Brugge. The total trip takes about 1 1/2 hour. Trains leave every 15 minutes at the airport and every 30 minutes at Brussel Zuid. Price of a train ticket Brussels Airport – Bruges is 425 BEF (2nd class).

Brugge lies about 90 km west of Brussels. By car, it takes about 1 hour to reach Brugge from Brussels. Taxis are available but (very) expensive for such distances.

Hotel accommodation

Bruges is a small but beautiful historical city. The original urban tissue of narrow streets with the typical gentleman's houses has been preserved up to now. Strict building guidelines have prevented the construction of new buildings within this historical texture. Hence, hotels in Bruges are rather small compared to international standards. In order to meet the required amount of hotel rooms needed for the EUROCRYPT 2000 conference, rooms have been reserved in a number of hotels. Consequently, per hotel listed below, the number of available rooms is limited (the total number is mentioned next to the name of the hotel). Participants are asked to specify at least three preferences on the registration form. Hotel rooms will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

In Bruges, nearly everything is within walking distance. Public transport is well developed and can bring you to almost any place if necessary.

The following hotels fall within three price brackets. They are presented in each category from most to least expensive (detailed prices can be found on the booking form).

A category:

single room: 100 – 125 EUR / approx. US$ 105 – 130

double room: 108 – 150 EUR / approx. US$ 115 – 160
